The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8-12 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Housez for reasons of record.

Applicant has amended the claim to state that the fat is added before caramelization. This amendment has been considered but is not persuasive. The formulation of Housez provides for caramelization after the addition of fat because the mixture is additionally boiled. In addition soy milk alone would be expected to have fat in it. Applicant argues that Housez does not suggest the fat level of the claims. It is appreciated that the amount of fat in Housez is not mentioned in the product but to add more or less butter or margarine to the composition of Housez would have been within the abilities of the ordinary artisan who desires to adjust the calories from fat according to taste.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
